

Jamiel S. Saliba

Mr. Saliba has over 40 years of experience in the Human Resources arena. He currently serves as the Vice President/General Manager TAPFIN Global overseeing all aspects of TAPFIN throughout the four Regions of ManpowerGroup. He previously served as Vice President/General Manager of TAPFIN's Global Operations from October 2004 to October 2014, President, Managed Staffing Solutions for Venturi Technology Partners from March 2003 until October 2004, overseeing all MSP and VMS activity. Mr. Saliba also served as President of Venturi Technology Partners for the Southeast Region from June 1999 until March 2003 prior to this assignment he served as Managing Director for the Alabama Office of Venturi Technology Partners from August 1996 until June 1999.

Prior to joining Venturi in 1996, he served in the United States Army for 23 years in a variety of Command and Staff positions in the US and Europe in the Human Resources area until his retirement as a Lieutenant Colonel in June 1996.

Mr. Saliba serves as a member of the Hoover, Alabama Veterans Committee and is also a member of the Monday Morning Quarterback of Birmingham. This organization has raised over $20 million dollars for Crippled Children's Foundation and the Children's Hospital along with other agencies to support less fortunate children in Alabama.

Mr. Saliba received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of North Alabama in 1973 and his Masters in Business Administration in 1989 from Webster University in St. Louis, Missouri.